expired on or about November 5, 2006.

11. Plaintiff Ali applied for, and was issued, an Immediate Relative (706D) entry permit each year from 2002 through 2005, by Defendants and/or their predecessors in office. His last such permit

10. As a consequence of his marriage, Plaintiff Ali became eligible for Immediate Relative

- 12. Plaintiff Ali has submitted an application for renewal of his Immediate Relative entry permit for the year November 2006 – November 2007, which has been denied by Defendant Grey. The denial has been appealed to Defendant Gregory, and the appeal is pending.
- 13. On June 20, 2006, the Governor of the CNMI signed into law Public Law 15-17, which, among other things, enacts a new 3 CMC § 4372. A true and correct copy of new 3 CMC § 4372 is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
- 14. New 3 CMC § 4372 purports to authorize the Director of Immigration to deny an application for renewal of an existing Immediate Relative (706D) entry permit if he determines that there are "substantial grounds" to believe that the said application for entry permit was based on fraudulent grounds.
- 15. New 3 CMC § 4372 sets forth certain enumerated factors, any one of which alone may form a basis for finding such "substantial grounds."
  - 16. One of the enumerated factors of new 3 CMC § 4372 is that either one of the spouses resides primarily outside of the spousal residence and the circumstances indicate that the spouses do not intend to share the same residence. 17. New 3 CMC § 4372 further purports to authorize the Attorney General to promulgate by regulation additional factors which may alone form a basis for finding such "substantial grounds." 18. On January 16, 2007, Defendant Gregory promulgated new Immigration Regulation § 713. A true and correct copy of new Immigration Regulation § 713 is attached hereto as Exhibit B. 19. New Immigration Regulation § 713 purports to set forth four conditions, three of which must be met in order for a person to be eligible for renewal of an Immediate Relative (706D) entry permit. 20. One of the conditions of new Immigration Regulation § 713 is an affidavit attesting that the couple will share the same primary place of residence in the CNMI. 21. Another of the conditions of new Immigration Regulation § 713 is that the sponsoring spouse provide evidence of residence in the CNMI. 22. The remaining two conditions of new Immigration Regulation § 713 require, in the case of an application for permit renewal (as opposed to an initial permit), evidence that the marriage is not being "maintained" for the sole purpose of obtaining a labor or immigration benefit. 23. Plaintiff Peter's husband is, and has been since about April 2006, residing on Guam, separately from Plaintiff Peter.

24. Plaintiff Ali's wife is, and has been since about September 2004, residing in the United States (first in Georgia, now in Hawaii), separately from Plaintiff Ali.

25. Plaintiff Peter's pending Immediate Relative entry permit renewal application is in the process of being evaluated and determined by Defendant Grey based on new 3 CMC § 4372 and new Immigration Regulation § 713, and will in the near future be so determined.

26. Plaintiff Ali's Immediate Relative entry permit renewal application has been denied by Defendant Grey based on new 3 CMC § 4372 and new Immigration Regulation § 713, and will, on appeal, be evaluated and determined by Defendant Gregory, or his designee, based on such laws and regulations.

- 27. Paragraphs 1-26 of this Complaint are realleged and incorporated here by reference.
- 28. All actions taken by Defendants Gregory and Grey as described herein were taken, and continue to be taken, under color of the law of the CNMI.
- 29. The promulgation of new Immigration Regulation § 713, and the evaluation and determination of Plaintiffs' entry permit applications based upon new 3 CMC § 4372 and new Immigration Regulation § 713, deprives Plaintiffs, and each of them, of liberty and/or property without due process of law, and of equal protection of the laws, and infringes upon Plaintiffs' rights to freedom of association and marital privacy, in violation of the First, Fourth, Fifth, Ninth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as applicable to the CNMI through the Covenant, and actionable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Second Cause of Action – Declaratory Relief

31. New 3 CMC § 4372 and new Immigration Regulation § 713, both on their face and as applied to Plaintiffs, work a deprivation of liberty and/or property without due process of law, and a deprivation of equal protection of the laws, and infringe upon Plaintiffs' rights to freedom of association and marital privacy, in violation of the First, Fourth, Fifth, Ninth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as applicable to the CNMI through the Covenant.

32. Plaintiffs are entitled to a declaration of this Court so stating.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs prays the Court grant them the following relief:

- 1. A declaratory judgment stating that new 3 CMC § 4372 and new Immigration Regulation § 713 are unconstitutional.

IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS TITLE VII

Immigration Regulation § 713. Sponsors

A. Applicability.

Except as otherwise provided for by law or regulation, any alien applying for an entry permit under Immigration Regulation §§ 703, 704, or 706 shall have a local sponsor who shall have signed an Affidavit of Sponsorship and Support on behalf of the alien.

B. General Eligibility Requirements.

In order to serve as sponsor, a person must not have previously sponsored an alien who then violated United States or Commonwealth immigration laws or regulations. A violation may include sponsoring an alien who at any time is present in the Commonwealth without legal status; such determination need not be rendered by a court of law, but must, in any case, be supported by substantial evidence.

C. Specific Eligibility Requirements.

- 1. If the person is serving as sponsor for purposes of obtaining a Visitor Entry Permit, the sponsor must satisfy the requirements of Immigration Regulation § 703.
- 2. If the person is serving as sponsor for purposes of obtaining a Short-Term Business Entry Permit under Immigration Regulation § 704, the sponsor must establish that he or she is, or is acting on behalf of, a duly-established and lawfully operating business in the CNMI.
- 3. If the person is serving as sponsoring-spouse for purposes of obtaining or renewing an Immediate Relative of a Non-Alien Permit under Immigration Regulation § 706(D), the couple must provide evidence that at least three of the following four conditions have been satisfied:
  - a An affidavit sworn under penalty of perjury, signed by both sponsoring-spouse and the alien, attesting that the couple will share the same primary place of residence in the CNMI.
  - b. The sponsoring-spouse demonstrates residency in the CNMI by providing proof that he or she: (i) owns, either wholly or in part, or continuously maintains a leasehold interest in, a residential property, apartment, or condominium, located in the CNMI, and if an initial application, that said interest was established at least six months prior to the date on which the application for the Immediate Relative of a Non-Alien Permit was filed; or (ii)

VOLUME 29 NUMBER 01

is registered to vote in the CNMI for at least one year immediately prior to submission of the application.

- Prior to issuance of the initial permit, and again thereafter ¢. at any time prior to the annual renewal of said permit, the couple appears together, in person and under oath, for an interview with the Director of Immigration or his designee. The purpose of said interview is solely for the purpose of determining whether the couple intends to establish a life together if an initial interview, and if a subsequent interview, the purpose shall be to determine that the marriage is not being maintained for the sole purpose of obtaining a labor and immigration benefit. The interviewer shall take all necessary steps to protect the couple's right to privacy. The interviews shall be mandatory for the first three years of the marriage, but thereafter shall take place at the discretion of the Director, upon proper notice to the parties.
- d. The sponsoring-spouse provides such other evidence that, when viewed cumulatively, would lead a reasonable person to believe that the couple intends to establish a life together if an initial application, or if a renewal, that the sole purpose of the maintaining the marriage is not to obtain a labor or immigration benefit. Such evidence may include but is not limited to evidence that the couple: (i) maintains a joint bank account; (ii) jointly owns or leases real or movable property of substantial value; (iii) regularly participates in social activities as man and wife; (iv) files joint tax returns; or (iv) has children for which both parents are providing care and supervision.
- If the person is serving as sponsor for purposes of obtaining an 4. Immediate Relative of an Alien Permit under Immigration Regulation §706(E), in addition to satisfying those requirements set forth by and 3 CMC §§4321(d), 4437(i), the sponsoring-spouse must reside legally and continuously in the Commonwealth.
- 5. If the person is serving as sponsor for the purpose of obtaining any other entry permit, the person must satisfy all enumerated conditions under the section governing that permit.

Immigration Regulation § 714. Revocation of Permits

A. Applicability.

The Division of Immigration may deny any application for a new or renewed permit, or may revoke any permit issued under Title VII of these regulations upon a finding by the Director or his designee that:
